CAMPGROUND

North Pines Campground

Yosemite National Park | Near Yosemite National Park, California

This notice is unclear what sites will be made available at what times. I suspect they will all be released at 7:00 am tomorrow. I'm trying to get ahold of a ranger but it is very difficult.

I think we should all try at 7am tomorrow, see what happens and go from there.

How to reserve a site

I suspect these sites will all be taken seconds within being released. This is what I think will be the best method to securing a site.

First, login to recreation.gov. This is the most important part. You must be logged in when you attempt otherwise it fails. Don't forget it.

This is the campsite res page,

<https://www.recreation.gov/camping/campgrounds/232449>

Everything says R or X. R is reserved, X is not available. We are going for the sites that are currently not available (X) but will be made available tomorrow. When available the cells appear with an A.

I think it's bad to do a webpage refresh button because it resets the dates and is very slow.

Once the sites are released, the available ones will pop up at the top of the site list with A's in the cells. At this point click the start date and end date (June 22 and 25) then click add to cart. DO THIS AS FAST AS YOU CAN. See example below,

We should not all go for the same sites. One person try lower pines the rest on north pines. We can discuss who does what later.
